

University of New Mexico

Center for Development & Disability

Gay Finlayson

Education & Outreach
Manager

Contact Information

1-505-272-1852 or
1-800-270-1861

The Autism Family and Provider Resource Team strives to assist families and caregivers in navigating the Autism service system in New Mexico. This team consists of many disciplines including pediatricians, psychologists, BCBA's, speech-language pathologists, social workers, special education instructors, and other support professionals.

Autism Family & Provider Resource Team

Personalized support for families interested in obtaining an Autism evaluation and exploring supports offered for all age groups through various state and community programs following a diagnosis

SERVICES OFFERED:
 PARENT HOME TRAINING
 FAMILY/PEER SUPPORT
 COMMUNITY TRAINING

ASSISTANCE WITH:
 EVALUATION/DIAGNOSIS
 IEP AND SCHOOL
 ACCOMMODATIONS
 PSYCHIATRY AND OTHER
 RELATED SERVICES

FUNDING FOR THIS PROGRAM IS PROVIDED
 THROUGH THE
 NEW MEXICO
 DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

Accessibility

Assistance provided for application services through UNM's Office of Accessibility. Spanish and Navajo translators available, as well as a program dedicated to supporting deaf-blind persons in accessing services.